

Join us for a speaker series on the critical condition of health care and what we can do to fix it.

Health Solutions University is an event series focused on the issues facing health care today. For our inaugural event, we are proud to feature a national expert on transforming the health care business model.

Our first topic and speaker:

“The current situation, trends and the future of health care.”

Michael Main, Managing Partner
ChapterHouse, Chicago, Illinois

With over 20 years of experience, Mr. Main has been integral in the shaping of successful business models for companies such as Aetna, Cigna, WellPoint and United Healthcare. He is dedicated to working with corporate leaders to improve the quality of health care delivery and promote positive change for the industry. Mr. Main is an alumnus of the JL Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University.
